

I think calls from radio and TV stations are telemarketing calls that should be treated like all other telemarketing calls. Unless of course you are a lobbyist for these companies and then all of them should be allowed to call 24/7.